

Name _____ Period _____ Date _____

Human Rights Research Paper / Expository Essay: Paragraph 5 - Writing Your Conclusion

Due on Thursday, April 11, 2019.

NOTE:

In the conclusion of your essay, you want restate your thesis statement in a different way and close with a call to action and some final thoughts about your topic.

OUTLINE:

★ Start with a restated THESIS:

★ Follow with your two CALLS TO ACTION:

○

○

★ Conclude with your EXPLANATION of the outcome(s):

OUTLINE → SENTENCES:

★ Your first sentence must be a restatement of your thesis statement/main idea. (1 sentence)

- Restate the claim, statement, or problem/issue to the reader.
 - Example: As you can see from this evidence, the human rights to no slavery, no torture and workers' rights are being violated around the world.

★ What are your Calls to Action? Give ideas to show how people can stand up for and protect each other's Human Rights. (4 sentences – 2 for each Call to Action idea)

- Answer the question: How can people stand up for and protect each other's Human Rights?

Idea #1: _____ Idea #2: _____

- Example: One way we can protect Human Rights is to (Say: what is your Call to Action?) by (Mean: what will you do?). Doing this is important because (Matter: why is this Call to Action important to you? Why is it important for the world?).

1.) _____

2.) _____

★ In your own words, explain how the world would be a better place if human rights were made a reality for everyone. (1-2 sentences)

- Think about why everyone would benefit from human rights and why it would be important for you to be a leader in protecting Human Rights for everyone.

- Example: The world would be a more peaceful, safe place to live if we start respecting human rights. If we work together and care about each other, we will accomplish more and make the world a better place.
