

HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR:

ALICE SCHOENFELD

DATE: Wednesday, March 13, 2019

NAME: _____

Remember that this is an opportunity that many do not have, and everyone soon will no longer have.

- This paper is to: prepare for our speaker beforehand, note details that stand out while listening, & jot down any questions that come up for you while she is speaking.

- This paper is not to: doodle, get distracted, or anything but remain focused.

- Please show Alice that you appreciate her willingness to share and can be attentive even if it is a long time.

BEFORE: List 4 questions that you could potentially ask Alice if time allows

-

-

-

-

DURING: Write down anything that stands out from Alice's testimony.

-

-

-

-

-

-

DURING: List any questions that come up for you while listening to Alice.

-
-
-
-

AFTER: Answer the following questions as you reflect on Alice's testimony. Be specific and thorough.

How do you feel after listening to Alice and hearing about her experience during the Holocaust?

What do you better understand after listening to her experience and testimony?

What connections can you make to the survivor/rescuer's testimony that you listened to already?

What connections can you make to our text Night by Elie Wiesel?

What is one word that can describe your takeaway? _____

DUE: At the beginning of English class on Thursday, March 14, 2019